NB always check with internet booking sites, where you might get an even better deal!

This event is being planned and organised by the 2020 Festival Events Team and they look forward to welcoming you on the night. Please try to wear something tartan

Arrival from 5.00pm, for the opportunity of photographs and pre-dinner drinks before guests will be seated at 6.30pm.

There will be a piper in attendance who will be playing whilst the guests are partaking of their pre-dinner drinks at the cash bars. He will then pipe in the haggis, which will be addressed by our own PGM, RW Bro Archibald Iain Torrance. Many feel this address to be the highlight of the evening! There will be a traditional toast to Robbie Burns and the lassies.

Following the traditional meal of Haggis, Neaps & Tatties, Braised Beef and Seasonal Vegetables, Scottish Sherry Trifle, Coffee & Shortbread (Alternatives are available) there will be a demonstration of Scottish Reels by the Cobtree Scottish Dancing Group followed by an opportunity to participate and join them for a reel or two.

Back by popular demand the evening will be finished off with live music from the band "Where's Brian". Carriages will be at midnight but the bar will remain open until 1am.

All this for a ticket price of only £48 per head.

Members are kindly invited to supply a prize for the raffle.

All proceeds from the evening will go towards the Kent Mark 2020 Festival

Don't miss out, please book early to avoid disappointment and use the booking form below to book in yourselves and your parties in good time!

Finally, do try to wear something Tartan to mark Rabbie Burns' birthday.
